

ITINERANT PHN GUEST SPEAKER SERIES

Wednesday, October 16
3:30--4:30 PM

JESSICA STANLEY

Middle School Science and Math Teacher

Jess will present on artful, and culturally responsible approaches to teaching for Itinerants presenting to youth in schools and community settings.

Wednesday, October 30
11:00-12:30 AM

POLLY NAPIQ ANDREWS & AUSTEN ROGERS

Learning and Development Advisor and Director at Southcentral Foundation Family Wellness Warrior Program

Polly and Austen will provide materials and discussion on cultural humility and being a guest in Native communities across Alaska.

Thursday, November 14th
9:00--10:30 AM

ETHAN PETTICREW, DAAYOOSH & MISCHA JACKSON, CHOOKANGEE TLÁA

Director of Early Education & Tribal Education Liaison for Tlingit and Haida

Ethan and Mischa will discuss some of the past and historical context of boarding schools and colonization in Alaska and how this relates to present and future efforts across the state and working in rural and remote communities.

Tuesday, December 3
9--10:30 AM

MARY APAREZUK

Advocate and Independent Contractor for Community Projects

Mary will talk about her experiences working with youth on community projects across Alaska and ways to make a meaningful difference and impact on our future generations.

These sessions will be offered through a zoom meeting invite link. Calendar invite to follow in Outlook. These have been lovingly designed and developed for the Itinerant PHNs. We hope you can join! They should be very meaningful. We will record sessions for those traveling or unable to attend. This is part of a DNP Project Series and has been developed by Claire, Itinerant PHN in Southeast. For questions: claire.geldhof@alaska.gov